HOLT DEMOCRATS IN COUNCIL.

On Wednesday night, the 19th inst. a large number of the Democrats of Holt county met at an informal meeting in the large hall over Chadduck's store, Brick Block, Oregon. On motion, Dr. J. L. Johnston, o

Craig, was called to the chair, and Judge R. H. Russell, of this city, was chosen secretary.

The meeting was then addressed by ex-Gov. Silas Woodson of St. Joseph and Hon. Lafe Dawson of Maryville, and a number of gentlemen from Holt county. The speeches were all be half of a thorough organization of Democratic and all other elemen opposed to the present disastrous adinistration of our national affairs.

It was then on motion, agreed to call a Grand Rally of Democrats and all others opposed to the present admin istration of affairs, to meet on Friday night, April 21st, at the same place, to thoroughly organize the party; appoint a committee for each township and such other business as may come up before the meeting.

It is a truthtul saying that if winter does not come in season, it will certainly come out of season. The snowstorm of March and the blustery weather of April up to the 17th day, abundantly prove this. We are writing on ties who will thus distinguish themthe 18th of April, and not a peach to be selves, especially if the trees planted seen in bloom.

The dam work on the so-called Simero fill, carried on by the city of Oregon, for the purpose of protecting Pine street from washing, has been completed at a cost of $259.00. As these works withstood the late freshet bravely, it is hoped no further trouble from that source need be feared.
